WHEREAS, the term "septage" means biosolids composed primarily of human waste from septic tanks; and

WHEREAS, RCW 70.95J.005(e) reflects the Washington State Legislature's acknowledgement that biosolids "can contain metals and microorganisms that, under certain circumstances, may pose a risk to public health;" and

WHEREAS, among the metals that may pose such risk are arsenic, cadmium, copper, lead, mercury, molybdenum, nickel, selenium, and zinc; and

WHEREAS, among the microorganisms that may pose such risk are e. coli, heliobacter pylori, legionella, cryptosporidium, giardia, and various viruses; and

WHEREAS, disease and heavy metal contamination constitute potential threats to the life and health of humans, pets, livestock, crops, and also the natural flora and wildlife of the County; and

WHEREAS, the County of Wahkiakum prides itself on the quality of its agriculture, which is of economic benefit and historical importance to the citizens of the County; and

WHEREAS, the benefits of agriculture to the County of Wahkiakum are greatly enhanced by both the quality and the perceived quality, of the County's agricultural goods; and

WHEREAS, the County of Wahkiakum is distinguished by its many rivers and sloughs, which flood to a greater or lesser extent on an annual basis; and

WHEREAS, such floods have the potential to spread items applied on the ground on one property onto such other property as the flood may affect; and

WHEREAS, regulation of the use of septage, sludge, and biosolids is necessary for the protection of the health and welfare of citizens of and visitors to Wahkiakum County and also for the protection of the good reputation of Wahkiakum County agriculture;

NOW THEREFORE, THE COMMISSION OF THE COUNTY OF WAHAKIAKUM DOES HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:
